Welcome to the 14th annual Manitoba Rope Horse Futurity!

We are so proud to host this year's event held on September 25 & 26th at the Keystone centre in Brandon, Manitoba. Over the past 14 years this futurity has grown into one of the premier showcases of rope horse talent in Western Canada, and 2026 will be no exception!

Friday's exciting line up will host the Barrels of Cash futurity Jackpot and stakerace, as well as the 3 year old obstacle and pattern class. On Saturday we again have eight competitive team roping divisions including the open 4 year old and 5/6 year old classes in both heading and heeling; as well as the limited 6 and under roper classes. Following the team roping competition we will roll into a Showcase of the incredibly talented breakaway and tiedown roping horses.

Spectators and competitors alike are in for another exciting weekend with over 105 entries showcasing some of the top cow horse breeding programs in North America and their remarkable training!

Thank you so much to all the competitors, our many sponsors, volunteers and spectators. Without you this event isn't possible. We look forward to celebrating great horses, skilled ropers, and the vibrant community that continues to make the MRHF a success year after year!

Best of Luck,
MRHF Board

The NAERIC ROPIN FOR CASH program offered an incentive to those that purchased a foal through one of the NAERIC Barrels of Cash sales. In 2021 buyers had the opportunity to pay $100 into a side pot for the Manitoba Rope Horse futurity. In 2025 the eligible 4yr olds have the opportunity to win a share of this side pot. Additionally, NAERIC has matched these dollars so the total payout for 2025 is $4600. The amount paid out is dependent on the number of entries on each side.

In 2023 the program changed to the NAERIC ROPING FOR CASH program. Weanlings from those in the NAERIC Light Horse Marketing Group can be nominated for $100 to the NAERIC ROPING FOR CASH, preferably at time of sale, but in no case later than December 31 of birth year. Nominated horses are eligible to compete in their 4-Year-Old Year. This event will demonstrate their quality, suitability and performance in heading and heeling as determined by the competition judge (s). NAERIC Sponsorship Match For every dollar contributed by the owner or breeder of a horse (at $100 per nomination) NAERIC will ADD $100 to the purse up to $10,000 (CAD) total added dollars. In 2023 123 weanlings were nominated for a total of $12300. NAERIC is adding $10000. The total purse for the 4yr olds will be $22300. These 4 yr olds are planned to show at Manitoba Futurity Showcase event in conjunction with the Manitoba Rope Horse Futurity in Brandon in 2027.

Heel Horse Criteria

Blanket Clause:

In all criteria's to follow, any of the following disobediences will be penalized at judge(s) discretion. Bucking, kicking, rearing, swishing tail, shaking head, opening mouth, or loss of control.

Approach to box

Horse should quietly and obediently walk directly into the box turning either direction, without any signs of resistance.

Attitude in box

Horse should be willing to back or stand when asked. Horse should be alert and acknowledge the steer. Not lifting front feet off the ground or resisting positioning. Horse must leave off of heeler's hand.

Break and Run

Horse must break flat and smooth, haze steer as necessary. Horse must read the steer and adjust speed and position depending on the steer's pattern.

Corner Entry

Horse should back off from hazing position to enter corner. It should turn in as steer turns, keeping their shoulders elevated and continue to maintain proper frame and distance from steer.

Tracking and Rate

Horse should allow the heeler to have a good look at the steer's feet by staying off of the left hip. It should not anticipate the stop and not crowd the heeler's delivery. The horse should rate off and prepare to stop as the heeler delivers, while staying square to the steer.

Stop and Back

Horse should come to a complete stop as the heeler dallies and await the headers face. Horse should stop on the hindquarters, remaining square to steer and back up if necessary.

Settle

Horse should stand quietly and relaxed recognizing the end of the run. Horse should walk out of the arena relaxed.

Sharpness of Run

This is simply to reward the horse for the completion of a timely, sharp run. This is where the horse allows the roper to take advantage of a good opportunity or handles a bad situation well

Head Horse Criteria

Blanket Clause:

In all criteria's to follow, any of the following disobediences will be penalized at judge(s) discretion. Bucking, kicking, rearing, swishing tail, shaking head, opening mouth, or loss of control.

Approach and Entry to box

Horse should ride quietly and obediently directly into the box, remaining relaxed as the barrier is strung. Horse should be willing to turn either direction with no resistance, keeping all four feet on the ground. Horse should back calmly into the corner and be prepared for the run.

Attitude in box

Horse should stand quietly and relaxed, score with all four feet on the ground and leave smoothly and flat off of roper's hand. Horse must run through the barrier with no hesitation. (points will be deducted for broken barrier)

Run and Rate

Horse should gather the steer up, reacting to the situation thus allowing the roper an opportunity to catch. Once caught the horse must rate and widen to handle the steer while maintaining proper frame.

Set and Handle

Horse should remain arced up as he and rider tow the steer straight across the arena maintaining good speed and control of the steer.

Face

Horse should face on the forehand when asked. Then continue to back up and draw slack out of the rope with all four feet on the ground.

Settle

Horse should now recognize that the run is complete, and stand calmly as the steer goes to the catch pen. Horse must walk out of the arena relaxed.

Sharpness of Run

This is simply to reward the horse for the completion of a timely, sharp run. This is where the horse allows the roper to take advantage of a good opportunity or handles a bad situation well.

Breakaway Criteria

Blanket Clause:

In all criterion to follow, any of the following disobediences will be penalized at judge(s) discretion. Bucking, kicking, rearing, swishing tail, shaking head, opening mouth, or loss of control.

Approach and Entry to box

Horse should ride quietly and obediently directly into the box, remaining relaxed as the barrier is strung. Horse should be willing to turn either direction with no resistance, keeping all four feet on the ground.

Attitude in box

The Horse should patiently await riders' direction to get prepared in corner. Horse should back to corner with all four feet remaining on the ground. Horse should leave on rider's cue.

Break, Run and Rate

Horse should break to the left of the center of box. The horse should run to the cow directly and efficiently then match the speed of the cow to make roping execution as easy as possible for rider. Horse should not dictate the throw.

Stop and Finish

Horse should effectively come to a stop on hind quarters, while maintaining frame and headset. Horse shall pedal feet backwards calmly if asked. Horse shall remain square to the run through entire category.

Settle

Horse should now recognize that the run is complete, and stand calmly for riders' cue to exit arena. Horse must walk out of the arena relaxed.

Sharpness of Run

This is simply to reward the horse for the completion of a timely, sharp run. This is where the horse allows the roper to take advantage of a good opportunity or handles a bad situation well.

Tiedown Criteria

Blanket Clause:

In all criterion to follow, any of the following disobediences will be penalized at judge(s) discretion. Bucking, kicking, rearing, swishing tail, shaking head, opening mouth, or loss of control.

Approach and Entry to box

Horse should ride quietly and obediently directly into the box, remaining relaxed as the barrier is strung. Horse should be willing to turn either direction with no resistance, keeping all four feet on the ground.

Scoring & Leaving the Box

The horse must be responsive to the rider's hand, calm in the box, and leave immediately when cued, seeking the calf.

Tracking

Lock onto the calf's position and track it in any direction.

Run and Rate

Accelerate to the calf and match the calf's speed giving the roper an appropriate throw.

Stop

The horse needs to execute a smooth correct stop, staying straight while also maintaining good timing.

Working the Rope

Horse must pull while calf is being flanked and maintain tension on the rope while it is being tied, horse should hold the calf without walking up or dragging the calf.

Settle

Horse should now recognize that the run is complete, and stand calmly for riders' cue to exit arena. Horse must walk out of the arena relaxed.

Sharpness of Run

Horses are Judged on their ability to handle the calf effectively, which includes making it practical to the point of a successful tie and maintaining control throughout the maneuver.
